

I think that the EOBR's are an invasion of privacy and just another item that a trucking company needs to maintain. Companies can be trusted to follow the guidelines on their own. This industry is being pinched from all sides (taxes, fuel costs, ect) please don't give the industry another thing to worry about with this legislation.